The company announced it can provide local clients with full service goods transport and storage and prides itself on high quality service.

Harrogate exhibition logistics specialist, Fishers, has completed work on the Harrogate community bonfire for November 5.

(Newswire.net -- December 3, 2018) -- Fishers of Harrogate has completed work on a huge community Harrogate bonfire to celebrate bonfire night early in November. Following the job, the company has announced it can provide local customers with full service exhibition transport, storage and logistics services.

More information can be found at https://vimeo.com/303387751.

Fishers helped in all aspects of the construction of a huge community bonfire resembling Guy Fawkes, which was lit to celebrate festivities on November 5th. The huge construction was spectacular as it burned followed by fireworks to set off an amazing evening for spectators.

Fishers is based in Harrogate, near the International Conference Centre, and has over 30 years' experience in the field. This means that any businesses in need of commercial storage or exhibition logistics solutions can get in touch knowing they'll get great service.

Whether they need help with exhibition services, delivering goods to their customers' homes, or safe storage for their business needs, Fishers can help.

A variety of other case studies from past work is available on site showcasing the high quality service that Fishers has provided in the past. These include providing a commercial surveyor with paper records collection and delivery service. This meant that their clients didn't have to take time out of their busy schedules to drop of or collect any boxes.

In addition to this, Fishers has helped a large bridal event organiser with full storage solutions. This meant that the client was able to rest easy knowing that their goods would arrive when needed, and be stored safely when they're not needed.

A full list of services is provided on the company website, and includes exhibition services, house and office removals secrecies, storage solutions, and fulfilment.

Fishers can take the stress out of any event with its premium, reliable and affordable exhibition logistics services. The team is able to pick up goods directly from clients' premises, and transport them to the exhibition venue safely and securely.

The team states: "Whether you're an exhibition organiser, exhibitor or stand builder, we work closely with you to determine exactly what you need and provide a specialist logistics service, ensuring everything runs smoothly right up to the day of the event."
