(Newswire.net -- 9, January, 2012) Myrtle Beach, SC -- Coastal GolfAway releases latest golf packages for 2013.

Myrtle Beach has long been the ideal destination for golf lovers and beach lovers alike. It is a major tourist destination along the Southern Atlantic seaboard in the US, and is widely known for its large selection of extremely challenging golf courses, outstanding seafood restaurants, major shopping outlets, and of course, its very large, wide, and clean beaches. Myrtle Beach is the center of a large section of sandy beaches stretching over a sixty-mile radius commonly referred to as the "Grand Strand". The average temperature is 64 degrees year round, and the average temperature of the water throughout the year is 66 degrees. Myrtle Beach is truly an ideal vacation spot for both golfers and families.

Coastal GolfAway has proudly been one of the premier Myrtle Beach golf package providers for more than 25 years.
