

Cleaning Services - CarpetFirst Continue To Offer Extensive Services Throughout 2013

Nick Vassilev January 21, 2013

After wishing all customers, new and existing a very 'Happy New Year', CarpetFirst are happy to announce that they are open for business for 2013 and as always offering a range of professional cleaning services to residential and commercial customers.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(Newswire.net -- January 21, 2013) London, UK --After wishing all customers, new and existing a very 'Happy New Year', CarpetFirst are happy to announce that they are open for business for 2013 and as always offering a range of professional cleaning services to residential and commercial customers.

Based in London and offering carpet and rug cleaning amongst other valuable services, the company are keen to reach more customers in and around London so that they too may also enjoy the quality cleaning services that so many others have over the past three years.

Sissy Tasheva – the CarpetFirst Operations Manager says, “Going into 2013 we are keen to not only continue to provide our top level services to existing customers; we aim to reach out to new clients, both residential and businesses who would benefit from our professional customer-led service. Our highly trained and motivated employees have worked tirelessly over the past few years to give clients what they want and need and the feedback that we have received has been testament to their skill. We are thrilled with how well our business has grown already and plan for 2013 to be our most successful to date”.

Offering a wide range of services which include on-site rug cleaning, deep cleans for carpets in the home, office and communal areas, stain removal and a range of specialist hard wood and assorted flooring care services CarpetFirst are confident that their staff are best placed to offer competitive cleaning care to all.

Sissy Tasheva – the CarpetFirst Operations Manager adds, “December was a spectacular month in terms of both work done and future bookings, with many people choosing our service over others due to the reputation that we have worked tirelessly to build since starting to offer these services. Many clients use us only once before deciding to arrange a regular cleaning service to keep on top of carpets and rugs and their domestic cleaning. Arranging a regular visit ensures that your carpets, rugs and the rest of your home or business rooms are kept in top condition and of course regular care is what is required to extend the life of carpets and rugs, especially in high traffic areas”.

To talk to CarpetFirst about their extensive range of services, special offers and to discuss the suitability of arranging a regular rug and carpet cleaning or domestic cleaning service call 020 8099 8444 or email via the website at <http://www.carpetfirst.co.uk>.

Editor's Note:

For Press and Interviews please contact:
Sissy Tasheva - Operations Manager

78 York Street
London
W1H 1DP

020 8099 8444

<https://plus.google.com/107131204074651237872/posts>