

Las Vegas Motel-Now Features the Modern IKEA Design Furnishings

Ken Bracken February 17, 2013

Las Vegas Motel

Desert Hills has refurbished their suites to include IKEA platform beds with pillow top mattresses and Flat Screen Televisions. Designer chairs and decorations to insure the comfort of the guests staying at the Las Vegas motel location.

(Newswire.net-February 17, 2013) Las Vegas, NV --The Desert Hills Motel proudly presents their newly refurbished rooms, all with amenities designed to assist guests in relaxing and enjoying their stay. Rooms now feature pillow top mattresses, flat screen televisions, designer chairs and more, according to Lisa Lial, media contact for the Desert

Hills Motel.

"Guests staying at the motel find a wide range of room types to select from. A single room features a queen bed and double rooms come with two full beds. For those in need of a suite, two options are offered. Spend the night in a queen platform bed when the Queen of Hearts suite is selected. This suite contains a large kitchen and dining area for those times when eating in becomes the preferred choice."

"For those needing separate sleeping, dining and living areas, the King of Clubs suite offers this and more. The bedroom contains a platform queen pillow top bed and flat screen television, the living area features a big screen television and the kitchen comes with a dining area so guests can make use of the rooms as desired. The King of Clubs suite provides access to a private patio and entertaining area also," Ms. Lial explains. "Why be trapped in a standard room at other Las Vegas Motels Downtown when the Desert Hills Motel offers a variety of rooms and much more?"

All guests receive access to amenities when staying at this motel in Las Vegas, including 40 DirecTV channels, personal care products and a telephone with voicemail. Non-smoking rooms may be requested and a laundry facility is located on site. Maid service ensures impeccably clean accommodations and those looking for entertainment may rent an XBOX 360 or DVD player. Access to a nearby full service gym at a discounted day rate continues to be a feature guests love of the Desert Hills Motel.

"Take advantage of The Las Vegas Getaway special package which includes a three night stay in the King of Clubs suite. Upon arrival, enjoy a complimentary bottle of wine and stop by the front desk each morning for fresh beach towels. Dine out at Hugo's Cellar at the Four Queens as the package includes a romantic dinner for two along with admission tickets for exclusive access to one of the hottest nightclubs in Vegas," Ms. Lial goes on to say, "Other packages are offered as the motel wants all guests to enjoy themselves fully."

"Anyone tired of the hustle and bustle of Las Vegas Motels located in close proximity to the airport will fall in love with the Desert Hills Motel. Located in the heart of downtown Las Vegas, guests enjoy the motel as it offers low prices and great service at reasonable prices. Luxury doesn't have to be sacrificed when staying here and guests have more to spend on attractions, restaurants, lounges and other features of the city."

About Desert Hills Motel:

The Desert Hills Motel is a classic downtown motel owned by a local company so the staff is very hands on at this nostalgic lodging. The newly refurbished suites now feature pillow top mattresses, designer chairs, flat screen televisions and more. Located on Fremont Street, close to the local attractions, the motel prides itself on its friendly and inviting atmosphere along with its cleanliness, service and value. Guests escape the busy strip while indulging in the tranquility of the quiet rooms or enjoying a breathtaking view in a luxurious setting.

MEDIA CONTACT:

Lisa Lial

Las Vegas, Nevada 89101

702-309-5891

support@vegas-motels.com

<http://vegas-motels.com>