Professional Window Cleaning Has Officially Been Named "The Best Window Cleaning Company" In Scottsdale, Arizona after an online poll was taken.

(Newswire.net -- May 24, 2013) Scottsdale, AZ -- Professional Window Cleaning was Just Officially Awarded The Title Of Scottsdale's "Best Window Cleaning Company"

This poll was an online survey conducted among Scottsdale's residents and various Window Cleaning Companies in the greater Phoenix area. Scottsdale is known to have homes of all sizes. From the average typical valley home to the largest and most luxurious homes, Scottsdale has seen an over whelming increase of Window Cleaners within the past years. 20 years ago there were between 10 to 15 window-cleaning companies in The Scottsdale and surrounding area! Today there are countless window cleaners competing for work in this beautiful city. How are customers going to know what company to trust?

Window Cleaning quality and expertise is a huge concern for Scottsdale's residents. How are residents going to know whom to trust, or who will schedule a job within a week or less? Scottsdale needs to trust a company who has a long reputation of quality service, timely appointments, with dependable employees who have worked for the same company for multiple years. A familiar face is always reassuring when someone comes into your home or business to clean your windows. This is exactly why this survey was created.

After creating the survey, there was a lot of competition for the title of "Best Window Cleaning Company", but after the results were added up, there was a clear and indisputable winner of the prestigious title. After the ballot closed, Professional Window Cleaning was announced as the recognized "Best Window Cleaning Company" for Scottsdale, Arizona. This was fitting because Professional Window Cleaning has been serving Scottsdale's residents for over 14 years.

This company has a true passion for the window cleaning business, but more importantly they stress the importance of making every customer feel as if their homes look new when they leave. Professional Window Cleaning employs 12 hard working employees. The majority of these employees have worked at Professional Window Cleaning for several years. One of the their managers, Justin, said, "I love working here! I've got 5 children and a wife and I know my family will always be taken care of. ". When asking Justin what part of the job he enjoyed most he said, "I like the daily challenges of all the work we do. I like the difficult commercial jobs a lot, but I also like meeting new customers and the satisfaction of leaving them with a clean home."

Professional Window Cleaning was most likely recognized as "Best Window Cleaning Company" by residents in large part due to the hard work the owner and it's employees have put into the Scottsdale community. This has resulted in amazing window cleaning results and hard work ethic.

After the results were in, Professional Window Cleaning was quoted as saying "We've worked extremely hard for many years. We always want each and every customer to feel and know that we strive to make sure each customer is 100% satisfied. We didn't even realize there was a poll going on, but it's good to hear our hard work has paid off. We are a little surprised that this many people know our business name.". Hearing that people here in Scottsdale have actually acknowledged us, as "The Best Window Cleaning Company" is a huge honor and a privilege.

We took this even further and interviewed some of Professional Window Cleaning's customers. We even listened to a recent voicemail from Karen Piet, a customer from just last week. Karen said, "I just called to let you know that your guys were very professional and they did a wonderful job! I am so impressed". Karen had so much excitement in her voice over how impressed she was. She also said "My windows look amazing! Your manager Brandon was so great to work with. I could even read his handwriting on the receipt. Thank you so much, and we will definitely use your services again. I am going to tell all my neighbors about your company."

After hearing this voicemail, I was convinced that this company really is "The Best Window Cleaning Company in Scottsdale, Arizona"
