Carpet cleaning website giveaway contest by Hitman Advertising at The Experience Trade Show Event in Las Vegas.

(Newswire.net -- August 30, 2013) Pensacola, FL -- Hitman Advertising, an advertising firm for the carpet cleaning industry, is holding a contest for a free website at the Experience Trade Show. The website is valued at $1,500.

The Experience Trade Show is set to be the largest trade show ever in the carpet cleaning industry. Carpet Cleaning Businesses from all over the world attend this trade show to learn how to better their cleaning skills, network with other cleaners, and see the latest in cleaning innovations. The Fall 2013 trade show is being held in Las Vegas, Nevada at the Las Vegas Hilton from September 4-7, 2013.

Hitman Advertising is giving away this free website as a promotion during the RugLovers Tour seminar, which is held along with the Experience event. The seminar concentrates on helping cleaners learn how to clean and market fine area rug cleaning services. The winner of the free website must be the most accurate in picking the weight of John Braun's, owner of Hitman Advertising, new baby.

"This is a neat little twist in running a contest. We didn't want to do something boring. I really wanted to attend the trade show, but due to our new baby being born during the same time frame, it was not possible. So we figured we'd make a game out of the situation and have a contest to see who guesses the weight of my new baby. It's fun and whimsical, which is the way I like to market," said John Braun.

Hitman Advertising creates websites and SEO for carpet cleaning companies. As well, the company specializes in direct mail pieces including standard mail and Every Door Direct Mail. The company has been helping cleaning businesses with their advertising for six years.
