Total Roofing named #79 in top 100 of roofing contractors in Colorado Springs, CO. BNP Media, owner of Roofing Contractor website, invites roofers to share revenue, number of staff, and percentage of residential vs. commercial jobs as deciding factors.

(Newswire.net -- November 25, 2013) Colorado Springs, Colorado -- Colorado Springs roofing companies have only one winner among them who was named in the top 100 of roofing contractors in the entire United States. The winner is Total Roofing. This is especially impressive considering the company started in just 2005.

BNP Media, owner of RoofingContractor.com, is a gathering place for roofers across the U.S. to learn from other roofers, learn about the newest industry practices and laws. BNP Media said, "Companies were invited to share their total revenue in 2009, as well as their peak number of staff members and the percentage of their work that was residential versus commercial. The rankings are based solely on annual revenue, and participation was voluntary."

Owners Scott and Amber McIntyre were elated when they found out their company rated at #79 compared to the entire country. McIntyre says, "We have great staff who genuinely care about the customers. Combined with our training, we'd put our crew up against anyone's!"

There is much evidence that Total Roofing of Colorado Springs worked hard to achieve their exclusive place in the top 100. To start, they have an A+ rating with the Better Business Bureau. As much business as Total Roofing does, this is not an easy feat.

Next, a reviewer on Yelp writes, "Dustin, the representative who handled our file, bent over backwards to help get our roof on before our closing date. Juleen in the office was fantastic. Overall I highly recommend Total Roofing - they are professional, by the book, and very accommodating. Top notch company!"

Another reviewer on Google confirms Total Roofing's service saying, "I am living in Colorado Springs for 20 years now and had to get my roof replaced several times. The last time was with Total Roofing and it was by far the best company ever. I recommended them to all my friends and if I ever need another roof this would be the only company I would consider!"
