From its majestic entrance to its striking outdoor living area, no luxurious option has been overlooked when it comes to the design and creation of this showcase Talis Park property.

(Newswire.net -- December 31, 2013) Naples, FL -- Situated upon the twelfth hole of Talis Park's famed Normal Dye golf course, one which ranks in the top twenty in Florida, this model property is named La Villa Sul Verde and was designed to feature all of the amenities that would be sought after and found in even the highest-quality estate residences. Located at 16916 N Fairgrove Way, this is one of the finest Talis Park homes for sale to ever hit the market. With three bedrooms and three-and-a-half bathrooms, there is undeniably no shortage of space in this 3,506 square foot luxury villa.

While the home has the appearance of a classic Mediterranean residence from the outside, a single step inside exposes a completely modern home with exquisite hardwood floors spread throughout the common areas, expertly crafted and carved coffered ceilings and chic furnishings provided by Clive Daniel Home which accentuates the elegant and stylish ambiance that the property radiates.

In the kitchen, the home presents the utmost in top-of-the-line stainless steel appliances and hardware, and boasts two spacious granite-countered islands which allow for plenty of preparation, cooking and convenient dining space. Adjacent to the kitchen is a fully equipped wet bar and separate casual dining area.

The master bedroom showcases wrap-around panoramic windows which provide unobstructed and breathtaking vistas of the meticulously kept Talis Park fairway. The attached bathroom also maintains the elegance found in every aspect of the master suite with its capacious glass-enclosed shower and dual sinks.

La Villa Sul Verde's great room opens up onto a sizable covered lanai which offers a plethora of seating, a fully-equipped outdoor kitchen equipped with its own wet bar, and a cozy fireplace for enjoying the seasonally chilly evenings. Also in the rear, overlooking Talis Park's premier golf course is an open-air cabana, negative-edge spa and commodious swimming pool.

Enjoying the highest levels of comfort does not stop when leaving this magnificent property. Naples is known throughout the world as home to some of the most exclusive and sought after communities anywhere. For residents who enjoy golfing, Southwest Florida is home to hundreds of different courses created by some of the sport's most respected architects. With access to miles of beautiful, pristine beaches, and world-class shopping and dining options, the region radiates class and elegance.
