(Newswire.net -- February 28, 2014) Bishop, California --A leader in modern outdoor furnishings, Cooke Furniture is known for its state-of-the-art natural gas fire pit. Sleek in design and made in the USA, Cooke fire pit tables have transformed outdoor living areas to luxurious and intimate gathering spaces for stylish entertaining. Now Cooke Furniture, the brand that customers trust when purchasing the finest quality fire tables, is proud to introduce a new line of Kamado grills.

Rapidly becoming a top choice among American grill enthusiasts, Kamado grills are known for delivering excellent food with astounding efficiency. The ceramic design traps in moisture and uses radiant heat to make it easy to grill tender fish, slow roast turkey, and smoke a variety of delicate meats and artisan cheeses. Grill, smoke, bake, or steam all types of foods, in any season, for any occasion. Users have precise control of the temperature and cooking times, from the lower temperatures needed for smoking to the high searing temperatures required for capturing moisture and flavor. With an integrated stainless-steel temperature center and fresh contemporary design, Kamado grills give customers an ideal, all-in-one option for outdoor cooking that cannot be equaled.

Spice up an outdoor living space with a Kamado grill from Cooke Furniture, and enjoy a perfectly cooked meal with family and friends around a Cooke gas fire pit table. With its fire pit tables and Kamado grills, Cooke Furniture makes entertaining effortless.
