(Newswire.net -- November 5, 2014) -- Anthony “Tony” Robbins is a well-known life coach, motivational speaker, and self-help author. He is widely considered one of the most influential people in America and has been featured on Forbes’ Celebrity 100 list. Robbins has previously written two best-selling self-help books; Unlimited Power and Awaken the Giant Within. Twenty years after Awaken the Giant Within was published, Tony Robbins has finally written and released a new book. Frank Kern, a prolific internet marketer and consultant, recently had the opportunity to fly to Tony Robbins’ home and interview him about personal finance and Tony’s new book: MONEY, MASTER THE GAME: 7 Simple Steps To Financial Freedom .

Frank Kern attributes a lot of his success in internet marketing to Tony Robbins. Early in his career he listened to some of Anthony’s motivational tapes and Frank believes those tapes helped him reach his personal goals and accomplishments in online marketing. A few years ago Frank Kern had the opportunity to personally meet Tony Robbins during an interview discussing the personality traits that successful people have in common. This was the start of a blossoming friendship and since that interview Tony and Frank have become close personal friends. As a result of this friendship Frank was presented the opportunity of being one of the first people to talk about the release of Tony’s new book.

Robbins has spent the last four years travelling the world and personally interviewing fifty of the most legendary financial experts alive. MONEY, MASTER THE GAME is based on these one-on-one interviews with financial experts such as: Carl Icahn, Charles Schwab, Ray Dalio, and Steve Forbes. He asked every single one of them the question “If you couldn’t pass on any of your money to your children; only a set of strategies, or a portfolio, or investment insights. What would it be? What would you do?” Their answers left Tony Robbins with a simple seven step blueprint to financial freedom. The best part about this blueprint is that it contains practical and easy-to-understand advice that can be applied immediately regardless of a person’s financial status.

Throughout the interview Tony reflects on some personal situations that deeply affected his life. He revisits the times early in his life when his family struggled to put food on the table for Thanksgiving. His family simply couldn’t afford dinner and Tony never forgets what it feels like to go hungry. Fortunately, his family received Thanksgiving dinner as a gift through a program that provides hunger relief for those in need. The gratitude he felt that day was indescribable and this led to Tony’s lifelong passion to provide hunger relief for others.

For over thirty five years Tony has been committed to feeding people personally and through his business affiliations. Since 2008 Tony has helped forty two million people get fed and this year alone he hopes to eclipse that total. In his effort to accomplish this goal he is launching the 100 Million Meals Challenge . For one year from December 2nd, 2014 until December 3rd, 2015, Tony is asking people to help match his gift of 50 million meals by buying his new book or donating to the cause. For every book that is sold, fifty meals will be donated directly to Feeding America. 100% of the proceeds from the sale of this book will be directly transformed into meals and impact those suffering from hunger. Not only does the book help feed some of the forty six million people who need food assistance but also it details how a person can secure financial freedom for themselves and their families.
