Organics-R-Us is a California-based distributor of organic vitamin supplements and hygiene products. The company is proud to introduce a new line of cosmetic products available on its website.

(Newswire.net -- February 18, 2015) Richmond, CA -- Organics-R-Us, the popular and respected online distributor of organic, now sells organic cosmetics through its website. The company is known as an excellent provider of organic food, vitamin supplements, household cleaners and personal care products. Organics-R-Us now also offers cosmetic products such as make-up and facial cleansers to health-conscious customers.

Organics-R-Us distributes products as seen at <http://www.organics-r-us.com/> that can improve people's overall health and well-being. As with eating organic food and other consumables, using organic cosmetics allows customers to avoid ingesting unnecessary toxins, making their environment safer for themselves and others. The organic cosmetic products sold by Organics-R-Us includes a selection of different make-up types including lipstick, eye liner, foundation, application tools and more.

Along with make-up, Organics-R-Us provides customers with a broad selection of application tools as seen at <http://www.organics-r-us.com/personal-care-4>. The Honeybee Gardens Mini Kabuki Brush Bronzer is an environmentally conscious bamboo handled buffing brush with synthetic silky taklon bristles. This product is sold on the Organics-R-Us website for less than $10.00. The Swisspers Organic Triple Size Cotton Balls sell on the company's site for less than $3.00 per pack and are excellent organic facial cleaning tools. 1 unit of Earth Therapeutics Softouch Tweezers sells for less than $6.00 and includes a special coating that is soft to the touch without reducing the effectiveness of the tweezers.

The Organics-R-Us website distributes make-up as seen at <http://www.organics-r-us.com/personal-care-4/cosmetics-6> at very reasonable prices. The Ecco Bella FlowerColor Lipstick Cafe au Lait - 0.13 oz, for example, sells for $11.69 and uses a healthy mix of vegetable waxes and oils. Honeybee Gardens JobaColors Eye Liner Brown Sugar - 0.04 oz costs only $5.58 and is recommended for sensitive skin. The website offers a broad selection of foundations for different complexions, selling for just under $17 each. The foundations provide a sun protection factor, or SPF, of 15.

About Organics-R-Us: Organics-R-Us is committed to being the leading online supplier of the finest in natural supplements, food, beverage, baby care, pet care, and natural remedies. This company also supplies customers with household and personal care products that are ecologically-sustainable.
