The campaign to help Francis Devereux remain at her 72 Ridgmount dwelling continues with the release of a scintillating new single called "Stop the Duke" available in iTunes and Amazon UK.

(Newswire.net -- June 26, 2015) Sydney, NEW SOUTH WALES -- The song is performed by up and coming Jamaican rapper, Cupid X, and is dedicated to Frances and others who have been abused and taken disadvantage of. The single is lyrically sound. It is accompanied by the smooth richness of the violin which aptly complements the passion and intensity of the lyrics.

With the stringed interplay and driving rhythms, the 'Stop the Duke' single will appeal to a wide cross-section of music lovers. Chances are it may very well appeal to Sir Keir Stammer, QC, MP due to his love for the violin.

In the meantime, her supporters continue to wait for the finalized tenancy agreement for Frances. However, while they wait, John Giltrap has become mentally frail due to his recent prostrate surgery and uncertainty over his future living arrangements.

Amidst the anxiety and uncertainty, public support has snowballed for Frances' plight over the past few weeks. People as far as Seoul, Korea have been expressing their disgust and shock about the situation. Alicia Z. said: "Ms Devereux is clearly vulnerable and it is despicable that she should be evicted from a place where she has lived with her lifelong friend for so long."

Emma C. was utterly flabbergasted by the situation. She commented, "My first physical reaction to Francis' situation was that my stomach tightened as it does when I'm frightened...why? This could be me, maybe you, maybe someone we love....time to speak out in support."

Individuals who want to help send a strong message to Bedford Estates can do so by purchasing the single which will be launched on Independence Day, July 4th, 2015 on Amazon UK and iTunes. Profits from the sales will be used to help fund Frances's and John's campaign, with any leftover funds donated to "Help the Aged."
