SuperiorMaker recently released its newest addition to its homecare line of products. Their new lint roller is now available on Amazon.

(Newswire.net -- August 20, 2015) Auckland, Auckland -- Having been ranked as the number one best seller in Amazon's dog and cat pet hair removal categories, the new roller lint remover is capable of lifting pet hair from clothes and upholstery. Each roll has 100 sheets which can be easily torn away but each purchase contains 5 rolls, resulting in a total of 500 sheets. The lint roller's design allows a new roll to be used instead of an entire roller being bought.

The sheets are sticky and easily pick up hair. The new roller lint remover can simply be rolled across fur laden clothes, furniture and car surfaces and pet hair. Proper use ensures that fuzz, lint and dust particles are sufficiently collected. It can also be taken on trips and stored in the car or office since it is small enough but also comes in a reusable plastic package that can protect the adhesive sheets.

"Lint rollers are a huge deal for me. I work as a server and wear all black. Being [that], not only do I wear black and serve food, I also have a cat so making sure I have no hair on me is HIGHLY important. I have used a few different brands of rollers and the stickiness of the roller really does make a difference," said Melynda Kennedy, a verified Amazon customer.

The new lint roller with refills from SuperiorMaker are available exclusively on Amazon. Customers who make a purchase now will receive two free e-books on interior design and creating a better kitchen. SuperiorMakers also provides a hassle free 100% lifetime guarantee on each purchase.
