Recently Media News Blast featured the product Jenaluca Herb Scissors on its Pinterest page as an item under the Holiday Gift Guide 2015.

(Newswire.net -- October 8, 2015) Purcellville, VA -- The Jenaluca Herb Scissors has gained much attention since debuting on Amazon. It is sold exclusively on the number one shopping marketplace as a stainless steel kitchen shear at an affordable price.

According to Jenaluca, the herb scissors was specially made to cut herbs, vegetables and assorted seasonings to prepare food in neatly sized sections. They are a great buy for those who own their own herb and vegetable gardens and can quickly become an often used kitchen tool.

With Christmas just three months away, the guide comes at the right time to prepare persons to select items for gift giving. Media News Blast pointed out that the herb scissors was featured as a must have kitchen gadget on Amazon . They also mentioned it as an amazing five blade kitchen scissors to cut the user's favorite herbs.

This must have kitchen gadget has five blades that makes cutting herbs and vegetables in the kitchen very simple. The five blades make chopping and mincing herbs ten times easier. This is because one chop with the herb scissors is the same as ten knife chops. This allows professional results from the stainless steel shear which requires less time and energy and creates less of a mess.

Aside from being an interesting purchase for Christmas, the herb scissors are a great gift idea for various other purposes. The herb scissors are seen as a good housewarming gift for new homeowners. The kitchen shear can also be considered a good gift for wedding showers and birthdays. The must have kitchen gadget can be used outside of the kitchen area as a tool for arts and craft. The multi-purpose shear can be used to cut fabric and shred paper.

Jenaluca Herb Scissors were deliberately manufactured with stainless steel. This allows the herb scissors to be durable and long lasting. Due to the fact that the herb scissors is made from stainless steel material, it will always stay sharp. Additionally it is less likely that bacteria will grow on the blade and the stainless steel can assist in preventing contamination which can lead to illness. The stainless steel also lends to the ability of the vendor to offer a full lifetime guarantee on the product

This multi-purpose kitchen shear is a great gift for persons who want to reduce the time spent in preparation of food in the kitchen. It also can be gift wrapped with a special order from Amazon. Ordering three pairs of the herb scissors affords the customer free shipping.
