

How to Do Marbella in Style with a Luxury Villa

Saul Rosen March 13, 2019

With its perfect location on the Costa del sol, glorious Mediterranean climate and coastline, Marbella is one of the most glamorous and sought after holiday locations in the world.

(Newswire.net -- March 13, 2019) -- Once just a small fishing village, over the years its charm has led to development into a small but exclusive cosmopolitan city, and a playground for the wealthy. For a first class holiday in the sun, it is the perfect location for a truly relaxing, luxury getaway. And if you are choosing the very best in your European destination, you should also choose the very best experience in accommodation. And for that you need a luxury villa.

5 star service, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week

If you are looking for luxury villas in Marbella to rent, then you will want to make sure you are getting a 5 star service. The best villas offer all the peace, privacy and tranquility of a private villa, but with all the concierge and hospitality services you would usually only find in a first class hotel.

With a Guest Experience Manager on hand to look after your needs, it means that you can just sit back and enjoy your well deserved holiday, without have to worry about anything and they can make sure you are well looked after.

They will look after you from the first instances, handpicking the best villas that suit your needs and liaising directly with the villa owners to secure the best price. Not only are they on hand 24 hours a day, each villa is looked after by personal security guard and security system. Spain is of course perfectly safe as a country, but having that extra security just gives that extra piece of mind.

For real luxury look no further than La Zagaleta

La Zagaleta is one of the most discreet, luxurious and safe area in Europe. Situated just 15 minutes from Marbella and 60km Malaga airport, it is conveniently placed to be able to enjoy all that the Costa del Sol and Marbella has to offer, yet with the seclusion and privacy for the perfect holiday.

La Zagaleta villas for rent sit in a fenced 900 hectares of land on the beautiful mountains of Ronda. This exclusive area is home to just 230 properties, ranging from 5 to 25 million euros, each one with an area of between 3,000 and 10,000 square meters, 20 meters forested security perimeter, and views of the sea, Africa and the Strait of Gibraltar.

It also has an excellent golf course, and is surrounded by lakes and natural spring. Security is guaranteed, and only owners, members and special guests allowed access to the entire site.

There is even potential to buy a property here, which is a great investment for those that have a need for privacy and discretion.

Architects who design the properties here rarely have any budget, so you can imagine how wonderful these buildings really are. Although, you won't see them on Google maps - this place is so exclusive it is not even visible online.

Every service catered for by a professional team

What makes la Zagaleta complex different from other places, is the team of 120 dedicated and experienced professional who look after the guests and members. They offer à la carte services, that goes from the most exclusive requests from a last minute restaurant reservation to a private charter or the organization of some holiday experiences and day trips among others.

Each one is carefully vetted during the selection process in order to be permitted to become part of the team, and must be fluent in three or four languages, and carefully and thoroughly trained to ensure the best service, respect and confidentiality.

They look after all the facilities available for residents, including a private heliport, gym, equestrian club, golf courses and spas. The Clubhouse also have a proshop, gourmet restaurant, bar, swimming pool, billiard room, bridge room and tennis courts.
