

7 Best Celebrity Vacation Spots in 2019

M Rafiq March 14, 2019

Best Celebrity Vacation Spots

Traveling is a favorite pastime for many, including celebrities, since celebrities definitely have the financial means of supporting their travels.

(Newswire.net -- March 14, 2019) -- Traveling is a favorite pastime for many, including celebrities, since celebrities definitely have the financial means of supporting their travels, it is interesting to see what their favorite destinations are, considering that they travel a lot. Perhaps you'll find the following list inspiring for your next holiday – who knows? If you're curious, you can find out more interesting facts about celebrities here - thatswhatsup.com.

1. Lake Como, Italy

Going to Italy is always a good idea – a country with such an interesting history and rich heritage. This is primarily why many celebrities, such as Matt Damon, George Clooney and Donatello Versace ultimately love this place. It is quaint, picturesque, illustrating a sheer image of the Italian dolce vitae.

2. The French Riviera

The French Riviera also seems to attract a lot of celebs, such as Elton John, Tom Cruise, Johnny Depp, and Catherine Zeta-Jones. The French coastline is like a dream, as it has actually been the center of Hollywood's golden age. Its aristocratic history definitely accounts for a major attraction point.

3. Necker Island, British Virgin Isles

It seems that Necker Island is a major draw for Kate Winslet, Steven Spielberg and Harrison Ford. This is actually a private island, which is why most people might not afford to spend a holiday here, but if you do have the financial means for such a holiday, it will definitely be worth it. The clear, turquoise waters, the lush vegetation, everything creates the perfect holiday background for unwinding from the stress.

4. South Africa

South Africa is far from being the typical celebrity destination, but this doesn't mean it's not worth considering. In truth, Brad Pitt, the Obamas and Kate Moss think the exact opposite, as they oftentimes go here. The outdoor lifestyle represents the most unique and characteristic element when it comes to traveling to South Africa, which presumably makes this destination so appealing to adventure seekers.

5. Singapore

In 2018, Singapore received the title of the most visited city. This had to do with the success of the book and film – Crazy Rich Asians. Singapore expressly represents a unique mix of characteristics, the culture there is, without a doubt, engrossing, as well as the food and the architecture. All these make a visit here definitely worthwhile.

6. Cape Cod, Massachusetts

Reese Witherspoon, Jake Gyllenhaal and Mag Ryan oftentimes visit Cape Cod, which has a bunch of top-rated beaches where you can unwind and relax. The seafood there is also amazing, as well as the classic architecture and the typical lighthouses. It is the destination for the ultimate summer getaway.

7. Maui, Hawaii

Hawaii is a top destination for celebrities such as Owen Wilson, Oprah, Woody Harrelson, and Bill Clinton. The place is really spectacular, being ideal for relaxation and letting go of worries and stress.

Our world is beautiful, with so many places to visit and see, if only we had the time to do that, right? We hope that you've found this list inspiring enough! Happy travels!

Source: <http://newswire.net/newsroom/blog-post/00108444-7-best-celebrity-vacation-spots-in-2019.html>