Why is it that the Miami Heat Clothing is becoming a worldwide treasure? Why is it that nowadays in nearly every basketball gym and arena you can't help but to see someone wearing Miami heat clothing?

(Newswire.net -- April 24, 2013) Miami, FL -- Why is it that the Miami Heat Clothing is becoming a worldwide treasure? Why is it that nowadays in nearly every basketball gym and arena you can't help but to see someone wearing Miami heat clothing?

I've come to the conclusion. It's because LEBRON (Nightmare) JAMES & DWYANE WADE. There are several talented NBA players who's jerseys are purchased by many fans a well but there are only a select few that come anywhere close to competing with the combined forces of Lebron James and Dwyane Wade and the multi-billion dollar marketing their worth for the Miami Heat.

Dwayne Wade is a NBA mogul himself. The 6'4 220 pound, blazing fast swingman also known as "Flash" is about as dominate as they come on both sides of the court. By basically single handedly propelling the bang and bruised Miami Heat of 06 to a World Championship; he has left his mark on the NBA that will forever be remembered. Wade's media presence is also flawless. His openly publicized relationship with actress and former model Gabrielle Union is also a strong contributor in his jersey sales.

All being said, the fact that Miami Heat Clothing literally fly's off the shelves is largely contributed to King James. He is one of the most dominant basketball players to ever play the game and arguably the best athlete to ever set foot on planet earth. Not too many people can say that. Amongst many awards he is also the youngest player to win the Rookie Of The Year Award and the youngest to reach 20,000 career points. It's also hard to dislike James (Unless you're a Cleveland fan). He has a nearly flawless media image as well.

The two-headed monster of Dwyane Wade and Lebron James is the key factor to the overall success of the Miami Heat Organization. Heat jerseys and apparel can be found in almost any mall but according to Mike Miller, a diehard Miami heat fan from Dallas, TX, sais "Each person in my family has at least 1 Miami Heat jersey. We have everything from hats to jerseys and thanks to a Amazon we get them for cheap". Miami Heat Clothing strongly benefits off the amount of success that they have as players, which proves the saying is true, that..."You win games, everything sales".
