Broadview Homes, Calgary's premiere custom home builder, will be one of the builders at the Boulder Creek Estates development in Langdon, Alberta.

(Newswire.net -- August 2, 2013) Calgary, AB -- Broadview Homes, Calgary's premiere custom home builder, will be one of the builders at the Boulder Creek Estates development in Langdon, Alberta. This marks yet another of the region's major residential developments where Broadview Homes will be able to offer home buyers the opportunity to purchase an amazing custom home. In making the announcement, Broadview Vice President Peter-John Woolf said. "We are very excited to be part of the Boulder Creek Estates community of builders. Broadview Homes is known throughout the area as a builder who helps make dreams come true and we can't wait to bring the dream of homeownership to the people of Langdon."

Boulder Creek will be a major development just east of Calgary. The development will unfold in six phases with the first three phases of development already sold out. In fact there is such demand for the luxury homes that are part of this development that even phase four is almost sold out and phases five and six are scheduled to start as soon as possible. Located just off of highway 797 and bound by Dead Horse Road to the north and Boulder Creek Drive to the south, the development will feature some of the area's most luxurious homes surrounded by the planned community of Boulder Creek, providing all the amenities of the city without it's hassle.

The community of Boulder Creek will evoke the pioneer heritage of Langdon and the surrounding areas and will feature a pre-school and elementary school, fire hall, post office, commercial, retail and dining on the community's "main street" a medical clinic, dentist and many other amenities needed for a self sustaining community. The 18-hole Boulder Creek Golf Course surrounds the community and some lots back onto it.

Broadview Homes will add to the uniqueness of this new suburban community with their award winning luxury home designs that offer customers the finest quality design while providing them the best value possible.
