Kung Fu Thai & Chinese Restaurant in Las Vegas is now offering online ordering for all menu items. Delivery or Pickup is available. Pay by cash or credit card through secure processor PayPal.

(Newswire.net) November 26, 2012 --Las Vegas, NV-- Kung Fu Thai & Chinese Restaurant Las Vegas has come a long way since it opened its doors in 1974. The iconic restaurant has been a local favorite for over 35 years and was the region's first Thai restaurant. Today, the authentic Las Vegas Chinese Restaurants eatery is announcing online ordering right from their website.

General Manager Alan Wong says, "Our online ordering is simple and convenient. We accept online orders between 11:00 am and 10:00 pm daily. All orders will be ready within one hour after the time they are placed unless otherwise noted. Orders are prepared hot and fresh and delivered right to your door. Our online order system is a big hit."

Kung Fu Las Vegas Chinese Restaurants online ordering system is simple and easy. They accept cash, PayPal, and all major credit cards. Ordering is done in just four easy steps:

1. Select a menu category from the top of the page to choose entrees and side dishes
2. Click the "order" button to select a menu item
3. Use the notes or comments section to put in special instructions or requests
4. Double check the order and click "My Order" to complete (a confirmation email will be sent)

Wong goes on to say, "I'm a huge technology fan. We're always looking for ways to improve our services and ways to communicate with our customers. It's my understanding that we're the only Las Vegas Chinese restaurants of our kind in the area that has an online ordering system. The online ordering offers Las Vegas visitors and residents the convenience and reliability of fast, online ordering from an extensive Thai and Chinese menu. Just point, click and order what you want, when you want it, where you want it!"
