Secrets Of The Millionaire Mind: Mastering the Inner Game of Wealth is a best seller by T. Harv Eker. T. Harv Eker's son Jesse recently announced that he has joined the Empower Network an internet marketing training program.

(Newswire.Net -- April 7, 2013) Minneapolis, MN -- Jesse Eker, son of T. Harv Eker was recently interviewed at a conference sponsored by the Empower Network. Jesse explained his enthusiasm over the Empower Network by saying "I've been looking for opportunities throughout my whole life. Not to just follow in my dad's footsteps, but to take my own footsteps."

Jesse explains the appeal of the Empower Network.

Jesse goes on to explain the appeal of the Empower Network. He sees the Empower Network as a tool which will allow him to generate an "automatic" self-perpetuating income stream. (The Empower Network provides a series of trainings in internet marketing and also has a lucrative affiliate marketing program.)

Secrets Of The Millionaire Mind has been at the forefront of its genre since it was first published in 2005. Awareness of the mental/emotional aspects of creating wealth and abundance was first popularized with the publication of Think And Grow Rich by Napoleon Hill in 1937. Numerous other works have focused on the inner game of wealth including The Secret, The Law of Attraction (Abraham Hicks) Professional Dreamer and Change Your Mind, Change Your World—to name a few.

In Secrets Of The Millionaire Mind T. Harv Eker distinguishes between the inner and outer aspects of creating wealth. Outer aspects of wealth creation include skills in money management, knowledge of investments and experience in business. Equally important says Eker, are one's inner thoughts and feelings. This inner aspect of our lives determines our attitudes, our habits, our ability to meet and overcome challenges that inevitably present themselves on the road to wealth.

Jesse follows his own path.

In the interview T. Harv Eker's son Jesse expresses the desire to "take my own footsteps" and follow his own path. What a great tribute to his father, that he has the self-confidence and self-reliance to do so. His father has undoubtedly infused him with a deep understanding of the inner aspects of wealth creation.

Jesse was apparently just looking for a vehicle through which to manifest abundance. He says that "after watching 20 minutes of the [Empower Network] training I took the biggest leap and went full all in, and I just committed." The cofounders of the Empower Network are two self-created internet millionaires.

The founders of the Empower Network say their mission is to create other success stories just like their own. Learn more about the law of attraction, Jesse Eker and the Empower Network.
