(Newswire.net -- September 5, 2013) Warrenton, VA -- RE/MAX Regency is pleased to announce that Monaca Onstad is launching herself in real estate as an independent agent with RE/MAX. Monaca first joined RE/MAX Regency as a member of Michelle Perkins' team in March of 2013. Under Michelle's mentorship, Monaca excelled as a buying agent learning the ins and outs of real estate in Virginia and with RE/MAX International. Her success is worthy of applause. Now the time has come for her to leave the team's nest and establish herself and her business under the larger wings of RE/MAX Regency.

"Joining RE/MAX Regency and Michelle Perkins' team was one of the best decisions I made when deciding to pursue a career in real estate. I had planned to join another real estate company when I moved to Warrenton, but I am so glad I had the opportunity to meet Michelle and be a part of her successful team."

In 2012, Monaca moved to Warrenton from California with her son and husband, a military veteran. She started in real estate with RE/MAX Regency in March and in just six short months, completed 13 real estate closings which equates to over 2.4 million dollars in sales coming across her desk. "Most real estate agents, when starting in this industry, have a difficult time closing one or two transactions in their first year," said Chuck Cornwell, RE/MAX Regency's Broker/Owner. "Achieving 13 closings in just half that time is a great accomplishment! She has the motivation and drive to accomplish success and she put herself in the right place to make this become a reality."

Monaca is more than ready to help you achieve your real estate goals. She's determined. She knows the local market well and has a great team and company standing with her. Not to mention 13 transactions under her belt in less than a year. If you're looking to buy a home or you are thinking that now is the time to sell, reach out to Monaca at RE/MAX Regency or visit her website to find out more: www.monacaonstad.com.
