

Michael & Son Announces Opening of Charlotte Location

Courtney Richardson September 25, 2013

Michael & Son is proud to announce their continued expansion to Charlotte with the opening of their new location.

(Newswire.net -- September 24, 2013) Alexandria, Virginia -- Michael & Son is a family owned plumbing, electrical, HVAC, and remodeling company that was established in 1976. The company was started by Mousa “Mike” Mansour after he immigrated to the United States in 1968. Since then Mr. Mansour’s son Basim Mansour has taken control of the company with the goal of expanding what his father has created. After years of hard work and dedication to his father’s legacy, Basim Mansour can safely say that his father’s company is doing well. Michael & Son will open their seventh location in Charlotte, North Carolina this October.

The creation of Michael & Son’s new location in Charlotte is one of the many steps that has been taken to grow their company. The doors open in Charlotte on the first of October, and they will be prepared to offer a wide variety of services, including: Charlotte electrical, plumbing, and residential HVAC. The team members that will be stationed in the Charlotte are experienced contractors who know how to care of any problem that might arise.

Michael & Son already have locations in Raleigh, Norfolk, Richmond, Charlottesville, and Baltimore. After over 35 years of experience throughout the East coast, Michael & Son can handle any Charlotte plumbing need. The general manager of the new Charlotte location will be Ken Ashton. Mr. Ashton started with the company in June and was sought out to fill this position. With over six years of on the job experience, with HVAC, plumbing, and team building, it appears that Mr. Ashton is the ideal choice for the job.

“I am thrilled to join the Michael & Son team,” commented Ken Ashton, “They are a company on the rise and I am proud to spear head their new branch in Charlotte.” With the opening right around the corner Michael & Son are kicking in to high gear, they have even created a brand new website for their new location, www.michaelandsoncharlotte.com. Charlotte electrical problems will soon be a thing of the past, if Michael & Son and Ken Ashton have anything to say about it.

The brand new Michael & Son office is located at 400 Clanton Road, Suite K Charlotte, NC 28217 and will specialize in Charlotte plumbing, electrical, and HVAC services. If you find yourself in need of some Charlotte electrical services or Charlotte plumbing services contact Michael & Son today because as they say, "If you can't, we can!"
