

Ensenada Wine Festival Today

Chris Ryan October 12, 2013

Google Map Directions are on the right. 20+ Wineries, 20+ Cheese Vendors 30+ Restaurants and 3 Bands will make a great time for all

(Newswire.net -- October 12, 2013) Ensenada, Baja --

The Ensenada Wine Festival is today! When people visit Ensenada, they generally think of fishing, or the beach, but this weekend the annual Ensenada Wine Festival kicks off and will start the season of festivities that we know as Baja Autumn.

Today's Wine festival is one not to be missed, with directions provided on the right by Google Maps, you can place your address in the interactive application and be given door to door direction to the festival.

A 90 minute drive from downtown San Diego and you and your friends could be injected into one of the most beautiful wineries in all of Mexico, surrounded by the tranquil surrounding of fun loving and safe environment.

Emergency service vehicles and the ever friendly, extremely courteous and professional Ensenada police will be there insuring the safety and well being of every smile in attendance.

The price of admission is $25 and it is a bargain. This includes 3 bands, Wine sampling from the 25 + different local Baja wineries, Cheese samplings for the 20+ Baja cheese producers and tasting from the 20+ restaurants in attendance today.

Children are admitted for free, and the atmosphere from past Ensenda Wine Festivals is fun safe, and extremely family oriented.

Bring a blanket, picnic basket and your favorite people to one of the best kept secrets in Ensenada. The Wine Festival starts at 12:00 PM and ends at 8:00 pm.

Ensenada Wine Festival

PO box 1121

Ensenada, Baja 22800

52 1 646 178 3564

contact@bodegassanrafael.com