

Santa Claus, Zachary From Tampa Forgot to Ask You For Beyblade Evolution

Chris Ryan December 23, 2013

Zachary- Beyblade Evolution

I then remembered I forgot to ask you for the one thing I wanted most, Beyblade Evolution for my Nintendo 3DS. I know you are really busy in your workshop and maybe you need some extra parts or have to pay your elves some overtime to make the game

(Newswire.net -- December 23, 2013) North Pole --

Santa Claus I wanted to write and thank you for letting me sit on your lap and talk to you at the mall. I know you came a long way from the North Pole and had to sit for a long time and see lots of kids. I could see you were a little bit tired out but I hope you had a good time anyway.

Remember when we talked and I told you what I wanted for a Christmas present. That I wanted a mini figure of you, but not a Lego one. Skylander swap force xbox 360. Then you asked me if I was a good boy this year and I said yes in fact I said I was real good this year and you told me to smile at the camera

I saw there were lots of kids waiting in line, and parents looking at us too. So they took our picture a couple of times and you laughed again and I got off your lap.

I then remembered I forgot to ask you Santa Claus for the one thing I wanted most, which is Beyblade Evolution for my Nintendo 3DS. I know you are really busy in your workshop and maybe you need some extra parts or have to pay your elves some overtime to make the game. I'm sorry about that. I wish I could help but your workshop is a long way away and I don't have a map to get there. I didn't want to bother you but that's just one more thing. So I promise to do a good deed for the inconvenience that this press release has caused you.

Thanks Santa

Zachary from Tampa Florida, USA

Newswire the Official Wire Service of Santa Clause. Did your son or daughter forget to ask Santa for what they really wanted. Contact us, we will get it out for free, Merry Christmas.

North Pole