Ryan the winner of the previous car giveaway is from Delta Junction, Alaska which is a little over 1,500 miles from Dave Smith Motors. Ryan first made the trip down to Dave Smith Motors to purchase a Dodge truck after looking at dealerships in his area "I did a little bit of calling around, from other dealers in Anchorage, and Fairbanks."

Ryan made his decision to visit Dave Smith after encouragement from his friends and was extremely happy with the results "They definitely blew them out of the water. Made it defiantly worth the trip to come down."

When Ryan was first contacted to tell him that he won the new Chevy Sonic he was very skeptical "I almost thought it was going to be like a survey question, almost didn't answer it."

Ryan was still unconvinced that he won the free car even after he was contacted "I felt like I needed to call the Dave Smith to figure out that I did win a car." Ryan did indeed win the car. He made the second trip down to Kellogg to pick up his new car at the end of January.
