SOBA Recovery is expected to open to its drug addiction treatment center in San Antonio Texas in a matter of weeks and has been promoted by San Antonio's Fox News Affiliate, Fox 29 to spread the word.

SOBA Recovery, with its primary locations in Malibu California was the first drug and alcohol treatment center to offer long term care and to build a culture, largely with young adults, evangelizing that "being sober is cool". It now intends to build that culture in San Antonio Texas.

Since opening its doors several years ago in Malibu, SOBA has successfully treated thousands of patient guests with various drug addictions, many who say they owe their very lives to the staff, methods and treatment they received.

SOBA is now expanding and bringing this same level of care to its next drug rehab in San Antonio Texas.

Like other cities, San Antonio is no different in that drug and alcohol abuse are near all time record levels. SOBA intends to make an impact on this epidemic.

Local San Antonio Fox News television station, Fox 29 has promoted the opening of SOBA as much needed in San Antonio and has had SOBA CEO and nationally recognized addiction expert, Greg Hannley and SOBA San Antonio's VP and Director of Operations, Alex Draghici on for several interviews to discuss this epidemic, what parents in San Antonio should look for in their children and drug addiction after care.

Although SOBA Malibu started as a drug / alcohol treatment and after care facility used primarily by celebrities or other wealthy clients, it now offers its services to those with standard type insurance coverage such as CIGNA, Aetna, Value Options and others. SOBA San Antonio will offer the same top rated services in San Antonio with the exception of a "Texas Ranch" feel at its 10-acre property near Sea World.

SOBA Texas can be reached by business telephone at 866-547-6451.
