The Las Vegas/Summerlin area supports a host of successful businesses, from "mom-and-pop" stores to large manufacturing facilities employing hundreds. While resort/tourism and gaming industries have a strong market presence and provide tens of thousands of jobs, a diversifying economy is providing many new career possibilities in the valley as well.

Homes have in many cases returned to original values or greater and the market is moving in the right direction again.

Summerlin again is expanding and growing. It remains a great place to relocate. For additional information please call Judie Woods at 702 234-2002. You can receive her free "6 special reports" on buying and selling your home by clicking HERE.

The Strip as it is known is beautiful with all the glitz and glamor but Summerlin is where you want to live! Judie is now available for new listings and will be happy to take on new buyer clients too.
