Clearly Plumbing and the Grey Cup

Clearly Plumbing Ltd, Vancouver's premier plumbers, is proud to announce their new association with the BC Lions' Felion Dance Team, a result of the shared community commitments of the BC Lions football team and Clearly Plumbing.

(NewsWire.net -- July 11, 2014) New Westminster, BC -- Ambassadors of the BC Lions Football Club at many events, the Felions 35 talented and beautiful dancers made the cut to join the team by demonstrating a good work ethic in addition to their personalities, appearance and dancing skills. They are always proud to represent the Lions at community, charity and corporate events that help raise funds for various charities and initiatives while balancing full-time jobs, university schedules and other activities.

While we can certainly offer 24 hour emergency plumbing, we don't have the dance skills of the Felions, and likely wouldn't be considered quite as attractive either. We do share in the commitment to community and hard work as we strive to offer the people of British Columbia's Lower Mainland the best local plumber around.

Mutual Goals

The BC Lions are well-known for their many community initiatives, including various school programs, Courage for Kids, numerous programs aimed at supporting amateur sports and "Be More Than a Bystander", a groundbreaking initiative aimed at increasing understanding of the impact of men's violence against women.

Wally Buono, VP and GM of the BC Lions' football operations, has said: "Teaming up with Clearly Plumbing to help the BC Lions build a championship team on and off the field is very exciting. The fact that we share the same values when it comes to being a responsible community member only strengthens the relationship. I look forward to helping you reach all your goals."
