(Newswire.net -- October 28, 2014) Miami, Florida -- GE Audio Visual celebrates sound the way its creators envisioned it. Crisp, clear with every nuance of the presentation available for listeners is a brand trademark for the company.

Bringing more than 30 years of audio visual experience on multiple levels, GE combines the highest quality of service, the latest audio visual equipment and professional technical service.

GE provides rapid response to audio emergencies via its hotline and prides itself on being able to handle requests on short notice from its standing inventory of gear and equipment.

One of GE's satisfied customer's candidly states "This Audio/Visual vendor saved our Chicago butts when we were planning a client presentation in Miami. Recommended by the hotel where we were staying, this company was able to help us find everything that we needed on a Tuesday night for a Wednesday morning rehearsal." (Drucilla D., Chicago, IL.; geoaudiovisual.com)

GE Audio Visual is partnered with some of the most active venues and organizations in their region including "march of dimes," "Shula's hotel and golf club," and "The Palms hotel and spa, Miami Beach."

From social gatherings to festivals, GE Audio Visual is built for the heavy lifting and fine-tuning of the event's sound, giving your audience the best listening experience possible.

GE Audio Visual recognizes the importance of each meeting and event and commits to keeping you satisfied beyond your expectations. We promise to deliver exceptional customer service from the initial planning stages to event day by providing excellent communication, expert staff, and state-of-the-art audio visual equipment.
