Theresa D. Fellmann, MCLE board member had the following to say in a letter to the editor of the Malibu Times Newspaper "...We especially want to thank Daniel Baldwin and Mayra Leal for touching our lives with their personal stories. And, most of all, we extend a huge debt of gratitude to Greg Hannley for offering this screening as a fundraiser and for his invaluable support to the MCLE. This will help us continue our mission to provide a safe and organized location for day laborers to share their skills with our community members through work because jobs create independence and self-sufficiency. "
