(Newswire.net -- December 10, 2014) Quincy, MA -- Canton resident Susan Molinari was recently hired as an attorney by Baker, Braverman & Barbadoro P.C., a dynamic full-service law firm with a team of attorneys advising individuals, businesses and families throughout Quincy, Braintree, the South Shore and metro Boston areas.

Molinari previously worked for the Firm as an Attorney 1999 to 2012. She returns to Baker, Braverman & Barbadoro, P.C. after working as the associate director of career services at New England Law. In her return to the Firm, Molinari will specialize in complex litigation cases, trials and appeals in the areas of business and commercial litigation, criminal defense, consumer protection, probate litigation, and zoning appeals.

"It's absolutely wonderful to have Susan back with us," said Paul Barbadoro, a partner at the Firm. He added, "She brings a breadth of experience to the table with civil cases and probate, which will not only benefit our clients but help in mentoring our younger attorneys."

Molinari received her juris doctorate from New England School of Law. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree in psychology from Providence College. Prior to her initial tenure with the Firm, Molinari worked for the Massachusetts Department of Social Services as a social worker.

Molinari was admitted to the Massachusetts Bar in 1999. She's also a member of the United States District Court, District of Massachusetts, admitted in 2000. A member of the Boston Bar Association, Molinari also volunteers legal services at Riverside Community Care in Dedham, MA.

Said Molinari, "With apologies to Thomas Wolfe, you can go home again. Baker, Braverman & Barbadoro, P.C. is where I began my career as a lawyer. It's great to come back and see some familiar faces and many new ones. I'm looking forward to my 'second' career at the Firm."
