Bad Finances? Find a Consumer Bankruptcy Specialist, Ebert Law Offices, Fort Worth, Texas area expert says in SpotlightLocal.TV interview for Expert Consumer Bankruptcy Web TV Segment.

(Newswire.net -- December 19, 2014) Hurst, TX -- Your creditors are hounding you. The bank wants to foreclose. Medical and hospital bills are out of sight. Bill collectors calling every hour. What to do now?

“Consult with a bankruptcy attorney in your area who specializes in consumer bankruptcy law . You cannot solve your financial problems by taking on more debt.” advises attorney Carey Ebert of the Ebert Law Offices in a new expert interview with SpotlightLocal.TV’s Executive Producer, Richard Roll. Chapter 13 and Chapter 7 Consumer Bankruptcy laws were created by the U. S. Federal Code and are provided for in the U. S. Constitution. But the specific rules for filing are determined by each individual state. “Bankruptcy,” says Carey Ebert, “doesn’t have to be overwhelming. We are here to help you make it as pain free as possible”.

“Bankruptcy is not the end,” Carey tells Richard, “but when done properly it can mean a fresh new beginning for you and your family.”

David and Carey Ebert have devoted their entire careers to helping clients get a fresh financial start. “Every day,” says David, “we see people in our offices who have undergone major changes in their lives, such as losing a job or experiencing medical or family problems. One of the most satisfying things about our work is seeing the predictable relief that comes when our clients get a fresh financial start and are able to manage their own lives again.”

“What sets your firm apart?” asks Richard Roll, SpotlightLocal.TV Executive Producer . “We are specialists. We handle bankruptcy cases every day. It is our main focus and we are very good at it,” replied David Ebert. “Other law firms may include bankruptcy filings as part of their practice, but it is a really good idea to consult a specialist who understands all the nuances and who files dozens of bankruptcy cases every month,” adds Mrs. Ebert, who is a past president of the National Association of Consumer Bankruptcy Attorneys.

“We’re accessible and our initial Bankruptcy consultation is free,” continued David Ebert. “Call us for a free consultation and we’d love to help you.” The phone number for the Ebert Law Offices is 817-268-2468.
