

Revamped Plumbers 911 Website Goes Live

Diane Villanueva June 16, 2015

An all-new, revised and updated version of the Plumbers 911 site hits the web this month – making it easier than ever to get access to the best licensed and insured national plumbing experts.

(Newswire.net -- June 16, 2015) Washington, DC -- The new site is a major upgrade on its predecessor – visitors will appreciate the new, slick layout and smooth menus making it a breeze to find a local contractor. Alongside these aesthetic upgrades, the new site also features a number of clickable tabs where potential customers can learn more about the services available.

The “Cities” tab, lists every city across the US where Plumbers 911 are currently operating. From Atlantis to Tequesta, Plumbers 911 operators are on hand to deal with every possible plumbing emergency or remodelling job possible.

The new “Emergency Plumbing Services” tab gives visitors a rundown of all the emergency plumbing services that are available from Backflow Prevention, Sub-Metering and Pump Repairs right through to Septic Tank & Grease Traps to Sewer and Camera Locators.

Another brand new section of the site is the “Videos” tab where users can view a number of short, explanatory videos, detailing the work that Plumbers 911 do. Next, visitors will find the “F.A.Q” section which features some commonly asked questions including, “If someone were to call Plumbers 911, what kind of service can they expect?” and “Typically how long before a plumber arrives at someone’s home or business?”

Potential customers can now check out the “Blog” tab which offers some great, impartial, insight into plumbing with articles such as “ Tips when buying cheap plumbing supplies” which covers the pros and cons of doing home or business plumbing work without the help of an expert.

As well as these new, exciting features, customers can also find telephone numbers for every Plumbers 911 office across the country if they need Miami plumbers, Fort Lauderdale plumbers, Washington DC plumbers, West Palm Beach plumbers, Boston plumbers, Kansas plumbers and Missouri plumbers.

We recently spoke to Plumbers 911’s, Tom Bigley, who is the thought leader behind the entire Plumbers 911 program, “I can’t wait for customers to interact with the new website as it’s more alive and engaging making the overall experience, better!”, Bigley remarked this week.

“I really think our customers are going to love the new, easy to use layout. We have packed it full of brilliant new features that hopefully impress customers both new and old”

Tom gave us a little insight into why Plumbers 911 decided to revamp their old site, “Basically it is just another part of our commitment to offering our customers the best possible service. When our contractors turn up at their door, they do so looking their best and we thought, hey, that’s the type of attitude we need from our website!”
