Nielsen Law Group recently offered a House of Refuge seminar to answer questions about taxes and bankruptcy for the homeless.

(Newswire.net -- July 27, 2015) Chandler, AZ --Nielsen Law Group gave back to the community with a seminar targeting homeless individuals at the House of Refuge. At the seminar, those who were battling homeless situations received advice on taxes and filing bankruptcy.

"It is our sincere hope that by offering this free service, we can reach those who are struggling with financial issues and make a difference for them," says firm spokeswoman Heather Devries. "By offering the services of a qualified attorney to answer questions, we may be able to help some of the attendees to attain financial independence with the right guidance."

Nielsen Law Group plans on holding another seminar this fall. The date is still to be determined. Those who are interested in attending should contact the firm at info@nlglaw.com to express interest.
