Neilsen Law Group

In appreciation of its clients, Neilsen Law Group celebrated June as their Client Appreciation Month.

(Newswire.net -- July 30, 2015) Chandler, AZ --Nielsen Law Group provides tax advice, bankruptcy filing and estate planning to its clients throughout the year, but recently chose June as Client Appreciation Month. The firm honored its clients with prizes such as movies for a year and Amazon gift cards, free e-books, contests to have invoices written off, and discounted services.

The firm offers advice on tax law as seen at <http://www.nielsenlawgroup.net/requestaconsultation.html> from a qualified tax attorney to help clients make wise decisions when filing their returns and planning for tax shelters. With the help of these attorneys and their tax services, clients often find ways to reduce their tax debt and protect their income. Additionally, the firm offers the help of a qualified estate attorney for wills, trusts and other estate planning needs. Finally, these attorneys offer bankruptcy filing assistance for those who are struggling with insurmountable debt.

Neilsen Law Group offers help to all clients who need assistance with tax, estate and bankruptcy filing matters. The firm can help those who need a will drawn up or who are interested in learning how to protect their assets through the use of trusts or other legal documents. The firm can also help those struggling with debt issues to determine if bankruptcy is the best course of action to solve their problems. Visit the firm's website for more information.
