Providing the best supplements and service to their customers.

Supplement Edge, a provider of quality and affordable supplements, is now shipping their products for a low rate regardless of quantity.

(Newswire.net -- May 18, 2016) Portland, Maine -- Supplement Edge now ships all of their products for a flat rate of $5 regardless of quantity. As a company dedicated to providing excellent customer service, Supplement Edge continually finds ways to help their customers save more money. With their low flat rate for shipping, customers can now purchase as many products as they want without having to pay a bigger shipping fee.

The company is a provider of quality supplements at low prices. They carry a wide selection of supplement brands such as Optimum Nutrition, MuscleMeds, MuscleTech, USP Labs and Universal Nutrition. The price of protein products, recovery formulas and other products that help support athletes, bodybuilders and gym-goers in their training can add up fast. It is for this reason that Supplement Edge offers a wide variety of quality products from reputable brands at discounted prices. The company, which takes pride in their commitment to customer service, aims to offer reliable and trusted products at prices that their customers can easily afford.

According to Supplement Edge, the products that they offer will help anyone break through their plateaus and meet their fitness goals. They have products for building muscle as well as items that help the body recover quickly. One of the popular brands they carry is Optimum Nutrition. Optimum Nutrition delivers top-of-the-line products in every category, ranging from powders, bars and pouches to minerals, vitamins and drinks. They manufacture their products under tightly controlled conditions, ensuring their quality and effectiveness.

All of Supplement Edge's products can be viewed on their online store at www.supplementedge.com, which is designed to provide customers with a safe and secure environment to view their product catalog. The descriptions of each of their products can easily be navigated, allowing customers to quickly figure out which products might be a good choice for them. Descriptions can be seen by simply clicking on any item, and may include benefits, stand-out points and information on ingredients.

To further assist their customers, Supplement Edge offers to answer any questions regarding their products. They have a team of very accommodating associates that will help customers find the right product for them.
