(Newswire.net -- May 24, 2017) Jacksonville, Florida -- ValJax has recently announced the launch of a new aromatherapy essential oil diffuser on Amazon. The diffuser joins ValJax's existing line of aromatherapy oil diffusers.

Aromatherapy oil diffusers can make a gratifying, cooling addition to any room. A diffuser allows any essential oil scent to be utilized to create a soothing and refreshing atmosphere. Scents can be mixed to create a custom blend of fragrances. The oil diffuser covers 320 square feet. This implies that an essential oil diffuser can be used at home, or in an office.

ValJax's oil diffuser has multiple color modes that allow the user to change colors according to their mood. The aromatherapy oil diffuser can function for 8 hours before automatically shutting off. It is made with bamboo and glass that can blend with any home, studio or office. The fine water mist that the diffuser unleashes gets rid of dry air which causes breathing difficulties. The oil diffuser will assist to purify the air in the room and kill bacteria too.

ValJax is a firm that has innovative products that have found their way to the market. The firm works hard to meet customer needs as they are unending. The Company creates products that meet the recommended standards. ValJax has a wide array of products to offer to clients such as different types of showers, kitchen knives and bed pillows of different makes and sizes. These products can be found on Amazon, who is the distributor of their products. Customers have responded well with a good number of them leaving convincing reviews.

"This is one of the higher quality aromatherapy essential oil diffusers I now own," said MGR, Amazon purchaser." The benefits of using this product are endless, so I use one just about everyday, in several rooms of my home. I like the high quality materials used here, the glass and bamboo compliment any environment. The soft colors glow and are quite soothing too. The diffuser or humidifier has been easy to use and keep clean. I like the auto shut off when the water runs dry. Very nice product, would recommend it to anyone interested."

The ValJax aromatherapy essential oil diffuser is a portable ultrasonic cool mist diffuser that silently unleashes small particles of water into the atmosphere while ionizing essential oils for a nice aroma. The oil diffuser acts as a humidifier by adding water particles into the air via adjustable mist modes. Dry air can lead to excessive cough, thus adding moisture to air inside a room can assist with breathing issues. Breathing easier at night heightens the chances of a restful night's sleep.

The ValJax aromatherapy essential oil diffuser is used by people to cure illnesses such as headaches. The oil diffuser is currently being sold on Amazon at $49.99.
