Arizona's leading source of quality digitally printed banners for businesses, individuals and organizations launches website with custom design option

(Newswire.net -- September 20, 2017) Lakeside, Arizona -- From business cards and customized license plates to monument and building signage, High Country Signs of Lakeside, Arizona, has what individuals, businesses and organizations need when it comes to getting the word out about events, products or services. Located at 2569 N. Porter Mountain Road, Lakeside, Arizona, the company recently launched a new website to make it easier for customers from across the state or across the nation to shop for signs, vehicle graphics and the other products it offers. They are also offering a custom designing option that customers have the opportunity to design themselves and submit online orders through their website.

"Signs, banners and window lettering are just a few of the products we customize to meet the needs of businesses, individuals and organizations in need of getting their message out to a target audience," according to a spokesman for High Country Signs Lakeside printing shop. "Customers can design their product from home and submit an order through our website. Our modern, state-of-the-art printing methods and expertise in the field allow us to offer our customers signage and printing services and products that deliver the results they want to achieve."

High Country Signs was established in 1990 and has grown to be an industry leader in digital printing in the White Mountain area of Arizona. Their continued growth has now reached nationally as they have opened their website to online orders. They are different than their competitors who frequently have to send out orders to be printed. HC Signs large format digital printer on-site allow for a quicker turnaround on a quality printed order. They wish to carry their reputation of skill and value nationally and build long term relationships with more professionals and businesses.

Among the products offered by High Country Signs are digitally printed banners that can be created in vibrant colors that are visually appealing to capture the attention of a customer's target market. If customers need something more durable than a banner, the company can produce customized metal and wood signs in a variety of sizes. Signs can be imprinted with digital images and unique lettering to meet the promotional needs of businesses and organizations.

High Country Signs makes it a point to offer a wide selection of products to meet the varied needs of its customers. For example, the company can design and produce campaign signs and other signage to meet the short-term needs of individuals, businesses and organizations. This includes magnetic car signs that can be affixed to any vehicle without causing damage. Magnetic signs can easily be switched from one vehicle to another as an effective way to advertise a customer's services or products.

The company's new website lets customers browse the various products that are displayed and allows customers to create custom signs in minutes. It also features a blog and gallery to provide more information to help visitors who might not be sure of the type of product they might need. Customers have the option of submitting an online order, speaking to a design specialist by telephone at 928-368-4343, or request additional information and assistance directly through the website at <http://hcsigns.net/>.
