D-Mannose found to be helpful against lectin-related reactions. This may include irritable bowel syndrome, weight gain, inflammation and colon cancer.

This type of sugar can be found in cranberries. As a matter of fact, cranberry juice is widely consumed by UTI sufferers due to the D-Mannose it contains. D-Mannose is believed to be extremely helpful in fighting bacteria that cause UTI.

It is even thought to be a safer alternative to antibiotics, the use of which has been linked with adverse effects. D-Mannose is a widely studied therapeutic substance, and is even thought to be good for overall health. It has also been found to fight reactions linked with lectin.

In in vivo and vitro studies, it was found that D-Mannose acts as a decoy molecule. It works by simply binding with some allergenic compounds or irritants, which could decrease the likelihood of lectin-related reactions. It is further important to realize that D-Mannose could offer protection against lectin. Lectin is a type of protein that is usually found in edible items like vegetables, grains, beans, seeds, seafood and fruits.

Lectins can be degraded by stomach acid or proteolytic enzymes, and thus, they are virtually resistant to digestion. According to some experts, lectins can be found in microbes and they are often used for host cell attachment. In addition to blocking lectins, D-Mannose could also inhibit lectins from invading the intestinal walls.

These are just some of the benefits of using D-Mannose. To experience its therapeutic benefits, consumers may take into account the use of Purest Vantage D-Mannose formula. This amazing product is manufactured in an FDA-approved facility in the United States, and is made without the involvement of dangerous processes.

This fantastic formula is highly potent, and this is one of the reasons why it is extremely popular in the market. Further, it is also free from unwanted, nasty ingredients like GMOs, fillers, binders, additives and preservatives. These are some of the nasty substances that many consumers do not want to expose their bodies to.

Aside from its high potency and purity, this formula is also backed with a complete customer satisfaction guarantee. Purest Vantage wants to ensure that consumers can get a refund in case they feel unhappy with their purchase.
