The recent expansion comes as a response to the increased demand for the company’s efficient social media advertising services.

The agency specializes in custom social media campaigns promoting each client business’ branded products for a full day. “I’m Your Billboard” uses a creative approach to feature the products and services on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and other networks, create and share photos and videos related to the products, and include them in a weekly giveaway.

Companies working with the Zebulon marketing agency benefit from extensive exposure to a wide audience of potential clients, “I’m Your Billboard” using a variety of creative content to ensure maximum market reach and viewer engagement.

Additionally, for consumer incentivization, the company also offers weekly giveaways featuring six custom products from the businesses featured during the week.

The founder of “I’m Your Billboard”, “We are all billboards, each and every day. Sometimes it’s on purpose, but most of the time we don’t realize it. Each time we wear our favorite sports team’s hat, that shirt from a 5k we did, or a pair of name brand sneakers, we are promoting those teams, events, or companies. I’m Your Billboard is a business built around the concept of being just that, a billboard. I work to connect businesses to a larger audience, and connect the members of that audience to free stuff.”
