

Serengeti Honeymoon Safari Masai Mara Trips Chicago Travel 2019 Plan Announced

MARTIN THOMPSON November 12, 2018

Horizon offers a range of packages for the Masai Mara, Serengeti National Park, and more.

Chicago based African safari company, Horizon African Safari, has announced it is planning the 2019 season after their best year ever.

(Newswire.net -- November 12, 2018) -- Horizon African Safari, the safari specialists based in Chicago, Illinois, have announced that they are looking ahead to the 2019 season with a wide range of new packages. The 2018 season has now closed, and was the best year yet - with the team now looking to make 2019 even better.

More information can be found at: <http://horizonafricasafari.com>.

The team at Horizon explains that they are an owner-managed travel operation specializing in East African safaris for local, Chicago customers. The mission is to provide vacationers with the trip of a lifetime, and memories they will cherish forever.

Horizon Africa Safari prides itself on its great service, and the core values underscoring every package help to ensure personal service at the highest level.

What's more, competitive rates enable the safari providers to offer flexibility and great value without cutting or compromising service delivery. This means that anyone looking to take an African safari can get in touch with Horizon knowing they'll get a great deal.

Safaris include visiting Masai Mara, Serengeti National Park, The Great Migration, Rift Valley, Uganda Safaris, and more.

Horizon hosts a variety of safari options for the novice or seasoned traveler, with a package for everyone and all tastes. Each country has been hand selected by Duda, an African native, for its combination of wildlife and culture.

Horizon African Safari also has several packages that cover a variety of activities depending on interests. There are specialty packages for honeymooners for an extra special safari and luxury travelers looking for something extra in their trip.

Dida states, "Regardless of what package a customer chooses, they have all been 100 percent satisfied with their safari and look forward to returning again. This time selecting something different than before, each trip is different."

Horizon takes care of every aspect of the safari from the moment people land in Africa. This includes all travel, tickets, guides and lodging. The customer is only responsible for arriving and departing the continent.

Full details can be found on the URL above, where interested parties can learn more about the packages available.

Source: <http://newswire.net/newsroom/pr/00105625-http-www-horizonafricasafari-com.html>