As one of the leading clothing stores in the Scotland, Teviotdale Mills strives to constantly update its collection to reflect the latest fashion trends and meet the diverse needs of its customers.

The winter collection includes a variety of high-quality knitwear for men and women. The Teviotdale Mills women's winter collection features a diverse array of sweaters - including crew and vee necks, and roll collars - as well as cardigans, pants, hats and many others. Dresses, ponchos, hoodies and jackets are also available.

Men will find sweaters, cardigans, slippers and waistcoats from brands such as William Lockie, Brax and Chrysalis, many of them available in a wide range of sizes and colours. In line with the store's philosophy, each piece is made of 100% pure Scottish cashmere of the highest quality.

To help customers choose the best pieces and create unique personalised outfits, Teviotdale Mills also provides a series of style guides and other resources, available at <https://www.teviotdalemills.com/style-guides>.

The recent announcement is part of the Hawick store's commitment to providing high-quality pure Scottish cashmere pieces in a variety of styles.

According to its official website, "Teviotdale Mills was born out of the long standing heritage of Hawick as the home of Scottish Cashmere. Teviotdale Mills are fortunate enough to call one of Hawick's knitwear landmarks home. The building itself, erected in 1877, ran as a functioning knitwear and tweed mill for over 50 years. As a result of overwhelming demand, we created our online store in 2017 which now allows us to service our customers all over the world, with locally produced Scottish cashmere, quality tweeds, jackets and accessories."
