Certified Master Inspector is a U.S. registered trademark of the Master Inspector Certification Board, the inspection industry's top professional designation. This designation is only awarded to qualifying inspectors who have demonstrated the highest level of competency.

Phil Wise was awarded the Certified Master Inspector designation for demonstrating the highest level of competency by completing 1,000 fee-paid inspections and/or hours of inspection-related Continuing Education, for having been in the inspection business for at least three years, for abiding by the industry's toughest Code of Ethics, and for agreeing to periodic background checks.

Wise Home Inspections LLC understands the value and importance of long-term property investment. Their expert team have been serving Fort Lauderdale and the tri-county area since 2016. Before becoming an inspector Phil Wise spent many years rehabbing distressed homes giving him intimate knowledge of the types of problems that can be hidden in a property.

Wise Home Inspections LLC are committed to the highest level of service for home buyers and home sellers wanting to know the true condition of the home which they're dealing with.

The company can provide clients with confidence to purchase or sell their home intelligently through their experienced and professional inspectors. Their home inspections offer valuable information about the quality, health, and safety of one's home.

Wise Home Inspections LLC strives to be as thorough and professional as possible. Their goal in every home inspection is to provide clients with thorough information on the systems and components throughout each and every home.

With the recent announcement, Mr. Wise wishes to thank his clients and colleagues for their continued support of Wise Home Inspections LLC.

Phil Wise said: "We're so confident in our inspections that we're willing to put our money where our mouth is. We feel so strongly that you'll be satisfied with our inspection service that we offer a double your money back guarantee."

"If, at the end of the inspection, you don't think we have done a thorough inspection we will refund your money and pay another company to do the inspection. By providing you this Guarantee is one more way to demonstrate to you our desire and commitment to meet and exceed your expectations."
